

2. Glacier 3000 Run

Athlete Declaration

1. By participating in the Glacier 3000 Run, I am acknowledging the liability exemption of the event organizers for damages/injuries of any kind. I refuse to make neither the Glacier 3000 Run sponsors, its organizers or their partners liable for damages and injuries that can occur to me through my participation in the Glacier 3000 Run and related race activities.
2. I hereby declare that I have sufficiently trained for the race, that I am healthy and that a physician has confirmed my health condition.
3. I hereby agree in advance to receive medical treatment and care in case of injuries due to an accident or sickness during the race. I also agree that a physician or race official can pull me out of the race in case either diagnoses that continued participation in the race poses a risk to my health.
4. I agree to wear proper clothing and shoes based on the weather conditions on the day of the race.
5. I agree that the information contained on my registration form and that any photos/films and interviews that were taken or made for radio, television, advertizing, books, Internet, any kind of technical reproduction, as related to my participation in the Glacier 3000 Run can be used without my being entitled to any form of compensation.
6. I agree that my address can be given to the official Glacier 3000 Run sponsors.
7. I assure that my year of birth on the registration form is correct and that I will not give my start number to anybody else.
8. I accept the fact that the organizers may have to make changes to the program and/or race course due to Acts of Nature and legal regulations beyond their control.
9. I acknowledge that I must return the chip used to measure race time (received with start number) to the event organizer after the race. The chip can be returned after crossing the finish line on Glacier 3000. Not returned chips can be billed by the organizer to me.
10. I realize that I may be disqualified if I make any changes to the start number, cover up the advertizing print, or render the advertizing indiscernible.
11. Additionally, I realize that I can be disqualified, if at any time during the race I do not complete the race segments within the allowed time limit.
12. In case you can't participate in the race, it is possible to be reimbursed for the race fee, if you have paid for this insurance (cancellation) when registering online via Datasport AG. Any other claims cannot be made.